

PRIVATE RENTAL - Privately renting your week

You must have all outstanding fees paid by the due date.

Cancellation of a floating week: If cancelling your private rental guests' reservation less than 2 months in advance of the booking date, the resort has the right to forfeit your week.

Damage to property: You are financially responsible if your private rental guests cause any damage to the unit, equipment or resort.

Private Rental Bond: If you are privately renting, we recommend you charge a bond. Contact the resort upon your private rental guests' departure and we will advise you if any damage has occurred.

Rental Collection: If you are privately renting, the resort is not responsible for rental collection. We advise you to receive full payment prior to your private rental guests' arrival at the resort.
